FOR SHERIFF.

SMITH We are authorized to announce ROY SMITH as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Wolfe county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

SALLEY We are authorized to announce GEO. W. SALLEY as a candidate for Sheriff of Wolfe county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY.

SAMPLE We are authorized to announce S. G. SAMPLE, of Campton, as a candidate for County Attorney of Wolfe county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR JAILER.

DYER We are authorized to announce Geo. P. Dyer as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Wolfe county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR ASSESSOR.

TYRA We are authorized to announce D. B. TYRA, of Stillwater, as a candidate for Assessor of Wolfe county, subject to the Democratic primary.

UNDER the heading of announcements in this issue will be found that of Stephen G. Sample, who aspires to the office of County Attorney of Wolfe, and submits his claims to the Democratic party. Steve Sample is a native of Wolfe, is 24 years of age, studied law two years in the best law schools of the state, and has been in active practice three years at the Campton bar. From March, 1906, to January, 1907, he was Police Judge of Campton, a position he filled with dignity and ability, but had to resign to take care of his growing law practice. In the fall of 1907 the Fiscal Court appointed him to make settlement with the Sheriff for the tax year of 1907, when by his knowledge of the law he saved the county over $500.00 in recovering taxes from the L. and E. railroad and the Cumberland Pipe Line Co., for which the court complimented him by allowing him a double fee. Again, by assisting the County Attorney in briefing a tax suit in the Court of Appeals he saved the county $800.00 or more, although such legal lights as Fuks & Hovermale, T. C. Johnson, Gourley, Redwine & Gourley, and Joutt, Byrd & Joutt were arrayed against him. This, also, was in 1907, and the Fiscal Court again recognizing his acumen, allowed him a fee of $50.00. Other cases where he has looked to the interests of the county might be cited, but these will show that he has the requisite ability and that if elected he would be to Wolfe county what Joe Folk was to St. Louis. In other words he would be dictated to by no man or set of men, nor be ruled by any ring or clique. The Fiscal Court this year appointed Mr. Sample Special Commissioner to audit the accounts of the county and make a full and complete statement of the indebtedness and report next October. All who know him are assured that that statement will be absolutely accurate, and they feel that young, ambitious and aspiring as he is, he will exert every energy to show himself the best County Attorney Wolfe ever elected, should he reach the goal. Without disparagement to anybody we can truthfully say Steve Sample is the soul of honor, his integrity impregnable and his escutcheon without a scratch.

DRINK WAINSCOTT'S POP.

Don't Want to be Hurt.

Peewee Valley, April 25.

My Dear Cooper: The last issue of THE HERALD reached me today, and I want you to know that I feel badly "hurt" at the way the devil (or some other enemy) misspelled my name. At any rate, I suppose it was a stagger at my cognomen, since there is no one here named Hurt with the initials sported by yours truly.

I have not the pleasure of Rufus Hale's acquaintance; did not know there was a Wolfe county man here. Had I known of him and his contemplated visit to Hazel Green, I would certainly have sent greetings to you and your better seven-eighths.

The Confederate Home is a pleasant place at this season, and the healthiness of the situation is evident from the death rate—only four since December. This is a remarkable showing when it is remembered that there are nearly 300 inmates, whose ages range from 58 to 93 years, and most of them are more or less enfeebled by the weight of time. We have an excellent and most sympathetic physician—the son of one of Morgan's men—and he does all that is possible to keep us alive and kicking—the latter being a cultivated accomplishment with some of us.

The present commandant, ex-State Senator Henry George, of Graves county, is a kindly, unpretentious gentleman, ever on the qui vive for our comfort and popular with all the inmates. He entered the service with the 7th Kentucky Mounted Rifles at the age of 14 and made a fine record in the ranks. His first term here expired March 31, and Governor Willson wisely reappointed him. The Home is crowded to the limit at this time, but it is expected that conditions will be relieved ere long.

With best wishes for Mrs. C., yourself and THE HERALD, I remain, your grayback friend,
JNO. F. HART.

FOR YOUR SUNDAY DINNER

try the following delightful dessert:
½ cup English Walnut meats.
½ doz. figs, cut up fine.
1 10c package JELL-O, any flavor.
Dissolve the JELL-O in a pint of boiling water. When cool and just commencing to thicken stir in the figs and nuts. Serve with Whipped Cream. Delicious. The walnuts, figs and JELL-O can be bought at any good grocery. This makes enough dessert for a large family and is very economical.

Republican Primary Election.

At a meeting of the Republican Executive Committee of the 3rd Judicial District of Kentucky held in Irvine, Ky., April 23, 1908, pursuant to notice duly given, for the purpose of fixing the time, place and manner of nominating Republican candidates for the offices of Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney, to be voted for at the November election 1908, in said district: Present—Brethitt, J. B. McLean by A. M. Arnold, proxy; Estill—L. H. Flynn; Lee—H. L. Wheeler; Wolfe—G. W. Lovelace. L. H. Flynn was made chairman of said meeting, and G. W. Lovelace was made secretary and treasurer.

Upon motion it is ordered that a primary election be held at each of the various precincts in said district, to be held at the regular and usual voting places therein, in the said counties of Breathitt, Estill, Lee and Wolfe, beginning at the hour of 6 o'clock a. m. and closing at four o'clock p. m., standard time, on the 20th day of June, 1908, for the purpose of nominating the Republican candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney in said district, at which all Republicans, and all other persons who are now in good faith affiliating with the Republican party and who will support the nominee of said primary election, and who are now or will be legal voters at the regular November election, 1908, and who shall be legal electors and voters. The said primary election shall be held in all respects in accordance with the provisions of the laws of Kentucky and the rules of the Republican party governing such elections. Within two days after the date of said election closes one of the judges and the sheriff of said voting precincts shall deliver the ballots, ballot boxes, certificates, etc., to the chairman of the Republican committee of the respective counties, who shall, on the third day after said election, at 10 o'clock a. m., compare and canvass the returns of said election and immediately mail a certificate of said vote in said respective counties, signed by the chairman and secretary of the said county committee, to the chairman of said district; and on the 27th day of June, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m., the said district committee shall meet at Irvine, Ky., and compare said county returns and issue certificates of nomination to the successful candidates. The expense of said primary election is estimated to be Seven Hundred Dollars ($700.00), one-half of which shall be paid by the candidates for Circuit Judge and one-half to be paid by the candidates for Commonwealth's Attorney.

Notice of said election shall be given by publishing a copy of this call in each of the newspapers in said district, and by posting a copy of this call on the court house door in each of the counties of said district at least forty days prior to said election. All persons desiring to be candidates at said election shall notify the secretary of this committee at least fifteen days before the date fixed for said election, and pay to the treasurer his proportionate part of the expenses of said election.

On motion it was ordered that this committee adjourn to meet at Beattyville, Ky., Friday, June 5, 1908.
This, April 23, 1908.
L. H. FLYNN, Chairman.
G. W. LOVELACE, Secretary.

SIMPLE HOME RECIPE.

Mix this Simple, Helpful Recipe at Home and Try It, Anyway

Get from any prescription pharmacist the following:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful dose after each meal and at bedtime.

The above is considered by an eminent authority, who writes in a New York daily paper, as the finest prescription ever written to relieve Backache, Kidney Trouble, Weak Bladder and all forms of Urinary difficulties. This mixture acts promptly on the eliminative tissues of the Kidneys, enabling them to filter and strain the uric acid and other waste matter from the blood which causes Rheumatism.

Some persons who suffer with the afflictions may not feel inclined to place much confidence in this simple mixture, yet those who have tried it say the results are simply surprising, the relief being effected without the slightest injury to the stomach or other organs.

Mix some and give it a trial. It certainly comes highly recommended. It is the prescription of an eminent authority, whose entire reputation, it is said, was established by it.

A druggist here at home, when asked, stated that he could either supply the ingredients or mix the prescription for our readers, also recommends it as harmless.

TRY YOUR LUCK!

$25 in Free Presents.

The Wolfe County Democratic Primary Election to select candidates for the various county offices will be held in the summer some time, and THE HERALD avails of the occasion to increase its subscription list and at the same time give its subscribers $25.00 in useful articles, such as watches and chains, razors, combination handy tool holder, &c.

This is in no sense a lottery but an educational problem, in which each new subscriber, and each old one who pays up and renews, will have the opportunity to exercise his brain in estimating the vote to be polled at the coming Democratic Primary Election.

The price of THE HERALD is $1.00 a year, in advance, and every subscriber is entitled to one estimate. Old subscribers who pay up arrearages and one year in advance are also entitled to one estimate. The one who sends in the closest estimate will receive a gold plated watch and chain; next nearest gold plated watch and aluminum fob, next a fine razor, &c. Use the estimate coupon attached. Write your name plainly and make figures of estimate very distinct. Then enclose $1.00 with the coupon and mail to this office. These coupons will be filed and the day after the election a disinterested committee will take charge of them and determine who is entitled to the presents.

The Presents That Will Be Awarded.

The person making the nearest estimate will receive a gold-plated American watch, good time piece, and plated chain, $10.00
The person making the second closest estimate will receive American watch, good time piece, and aluminum fob. . . 6.50
The person making the third closest estimate will receive an American made razor, as good as any ever produced. . . 2.50
The person making the fourth nearest estimate of the vote at the primary will receive the same kind of razor. . . 2.50
The person making the fifth nearest estimate of the total vote at the primary gets a razor of the same kind. . . 2.50
The person making the sixth nearest estimate to the total vote cast will receive a combination pocket tool case. . . 1.00

BASED UPON WHICH TO MAKE ESTIMATE.

The total Democratic vote polled in the Congressional election of 1906 was 879, and in the Governor's election of 1907 Mr. Hager received a total of 890 votes.

Alcohol not needed

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows.

We publish our formulas
We banish alcohol
from our medicine
We urge you to consult your doctor

Ask your doctor, "What is the first great rule of health?" Nine doctors out of ten will quickly reply, "Keep the bowels regular." Then ask him another question, "What do you think of Ayer's Pills for constipation?"

THE HERALD.

Ezel ball team will play Hazel Green here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lee, of Grassy, were in town Monday shopping.

Andrew C. Long, of Demund, was in town last week on business.

Bro. H. J. Derthick filled his appointment at West Liberty last Sunday.

Elliott Arnett, of Jackson, is visiting his grandmother, Aunt Liza McNabb.

Turner McGuire, of Frozen, was visiting here Sunday, the guest of Sam Kash.

Miss Malissa Shackelford, of Fin castle, is visiting her brother, Roscoe Shackelford, of our town.

Bristow Shackelford and wife, of Holly, were guests of Roscoe Shackelford and family Sunday.

Rolly Cecil, of Grassy Creek, was here Sunday visiting relatives, Charley and Robert Cecil among them.

Miss Susie Long, who was helping her sister, Miss Faley Long, in the millinery, returned to her home at Salem Tuesday.

Charley Rose, of Richmond, came in one day last week, since which he has been buying cattle in this section and he now has a nice lot of feeders.

A washout on the O. & K. railroad Saturday caused the non-arrival of any mail for this point and our citizens were deprived of their Sunday reading.

Rev. W. C. Campbell, regular pastor of the Methodist church, did not fill his appointment here, and Bro. Roberts took his place Sunday morning and night.

Deputy Sheriff Jim Lindon was in to see us yesterday and paid up all arrearages, with the injunction to never stop his paper, that the money for it was always ready.

R. J. McLin tells us that the latest news from his father, J. B. McLin, Sr., of Rose Hill, Va., is that he is so dangerously ill that death is momentarily anticipated.

W. G. Franklin, of West Liberty, representing the Newberry Shoe Co., Huntington, W. Va., called to see us Tuesday and handed us a dollar to send him THE HERALD for a year.

Arlio Cecil has the thanks of the editor and his better seven-eighths for a mess of mountain oysters, which THE HERALD household enjoyed Sunday morning for breakfast.

Dr. Daniel Kash was here the first of the week, and Kelly Kash, commonwealth's attorney, was here Friday night. Both of them were guests of their brother, Postmaster Sam Kash.

H. F. Pieratt, of Richmond, who was here last week, sold a lot on Pieratt Plateau to Hal Smith, and bought back from Dr. J. H. Stamper the old Pieratt homestead on State street.

A Very Busy Man.

J. T. Day met Our Man About Town on the street Friday morning and handed him two new subscriptions with the cash, viz: One for Day & Day, Torrent, himself and daughter, Miss Daisy; the other to his stepmother, Mrs. Louanna Day, of Jackson. He then started to tell about his trip to Virginia, mentioned about seeing Jim Tuggle, at Barbourville, who used to travel through here. Then Dr. Center came along, and stopping him, he said he would tell us later on. That day or the next he bought the Harry Swango match gray horses, and Sunday he left horseback for Mt. Sterling, and we hear has been quite busy since. Indeed he is too busy to talk, but next week we hope to outline his plans.

Ate Editor's Birthday Dinner.

Mrs. Virgie Rose last Thursday prepared a fat hen with the intention of sending it to the editor for his birthday dinner. Steve James, her nephew, who was to deliver same, for some cause did not show up, and about 10:30 a. m. her husband, Mr. Rose, and John Sandifer, his co-laborer, persuaded her that the proper thing was to cook the chicken for them. She reluctantly complied with their wish, and now they have the laugh on us because they ate our birthday dinner. But when they face St. Peter and are forced to admit that they thus purloined a poor printer's pullet, he will accord them a just punishment. So there.

Mrs. Nanny Craven, accompanied by Miss Daisy Day, returned home last week, after spending a delightful winter with her uncle, J. G. Trimble and family at Mt. Sterling. She says her cousin, Miss Ella Trimble, well known to most of our local readers, entertained her in royal style, and that all of them tried to make her feel as much at home as in time past, when it was her home in fact.

Roy Smith, candidate for sheriff of this county and a prominent merchant of Campton, was here Saturday on business. Replying to a question about how he was getting on in his candidacy, he said: "I am running like a race horse, because very many understand how I have been unfortunate in business and know that I need the office."

Misses Mapel & Troy have moved their millinery emporium from over Kash & Sample's store to the H. F. Pieratt store room, where they have more room to display the fineries they have in stock for the ladies, and where they will be pleased to see the ladies of this vicinity.

Notice, Republicans.

To the Republicans of Hazel Green Precinct, No. 2: You are requested to meet at the voting booth in Hazel Green on Saturday May 2, to elect a precinct chairman to serve the next four years.

A. C. NICKELL, M. D.,
Chairman.

Uncle Jim Little and wife are now residents of our town, and in behalf of the people we bid them a hearty welcome. They rented and occupy the residence of Mrs. Emma Evans, recently vacated by Dr. Taylor Center.

Squire John D. Rose told us last week that he had planted 20 acres of corn, and John Murphy says one field of his has come up and looks good. How's that?

The latest news from the bedside of J. B. McLin, Sr., Rose Hill, Va., indicates that there is little hope for his recovery.

Spring in Indianapolis.

AS HIS BABES SEE IT.

We raise the shades, which in the winter's clouds and storms were drawn, And look out once more upon the bright lawn.

Which forms a soft, velvet carpet of greenish beauty, And we dread to leave the welcome scene even to go to duty.

The fruit trees in their bright, new dress, Each seems trying to look their best, While their fragrance seems to fill the land.

And each heart's happiness is at hand. Why be unhappy in this Land of Love? Coming, through Nature, from God's hand above, Sending us violets of rare purple hue, There is enough for every one of us, me and you.

The Spring would be complete were it not so unlucky, As to have both mother and father away in Kentucky,

We'll not be unhappy, but joyful we'll seem, For they're soon coming home from the hills of Hazel Green.

—G. F. French.

Wanted.—We want to purchase, delivered not later than June 1st to our mill on Lacy creek, 100,000 first-class 27, 23 and 18 inch staves. According to the provisions of a contract which we made when timber was at the highest, we can pay you more for rough staves than can be realized for same dressed and delivered to New York at the present time.

Any one who can make a few thousand or even a few hundred, will do well to write or call and see the undersigned.

Spring Has Come

and you may see the effect in the increased trade at Murphy's store, at Helechwah. People are going in crowds to Ben Murphy's store to get goods of all kinds, especially ladies' and gents' hats, shoes, slippers and in fact all their dress goods, from finest silk down, and anything you need. Prices tell; so does advertising, and Ben sells things very low.

Now a Chartered Cemetery.

Mrs. F. N. Day requests us to announce that the Cemetery Association has received its charter from the Secretary of State, and that it is now prepared to do business in a legal way. Land will be bought to enlarge the cemetery and many improvements inaugurated. Money is needed and the association appeals to all who have loved ones buried there or who are otherwise interested to contribute to the cause. Donations of any amount will be gratefully accepted and applied to "keep green the graves" of those buried there.

Landsaw, Salem and Neola correspondence failed to come in this week and Maytown did not reach us until Wednesday night, too late to use. We appreciate the news from these places but letters must reach us not later than MONDAY evening. Otherwise we have to do too much needless work. Please, friends, bear this in mind.

School Improvement Work.

The following suggestions may prove helpful to either teacher or patron who is interested in the beautifying of school yards. Of course, much of what can be accomplished depends upon the area of the grounds, but the general principles are applicable alike to small or larger areas.

Trees are used to more advantage in the more distant parts of the grounds, and should be so placed as not to impair the lighting of the school room, or to obstruct beautiful views of the surrounding country.

Shrubs should be placed within the border of trees, skirting the greensward which should always be left for play grounds; and perennial or annual plants should occupy the foreground. This arrangement of trees, shrubs and tender plant with reference to the building gives to each its best display without obstructing the view of any.

Regularity of pattern should be avoided. Trees and shrubs should be massed in groups, several or many in a group, with irregular intervals between the groups. The taller shrubs in any group should be at the center or rear, with the smaller kinds in the foreground.

Vines are employed to cover bare walls, to conceal the posts of boundary fences, to hide unsightly stumps or rocks and to screen out-buildings from view.

The tender plants are useful for borders along walks, or about the base of the building in front of the vines which cover the walls. Small clumps irregularly scattered about in front of the bushes may be planted if it can be done without encroaching on the playground.

All grouping should be as informal and natural as possible. Proportion of design should be secured by balancing part with part, the parts being equivalent but by no means exactly alike.

WHAT TO PLANT.

The most desirable trees to be used on the school grounds are the various maples, ash, black walnut, linden, poplar, elm, box elder, birch, beech, dogwood, red-bud, catalpa and hawthorn.

Of the taller shrubs, the following are worthy of mention: Snowball, syringa or mock orange, lilac, yellow flowering currant, deutzia, tartarian honeysuckle and hydrangea paniculata. The smaller ones especially recommended are the flowering almond, Japan quince, spirea van Houttei and berberis purpurea, the purple barberry. The latter bush and privet are excellent for low hedges if desired.

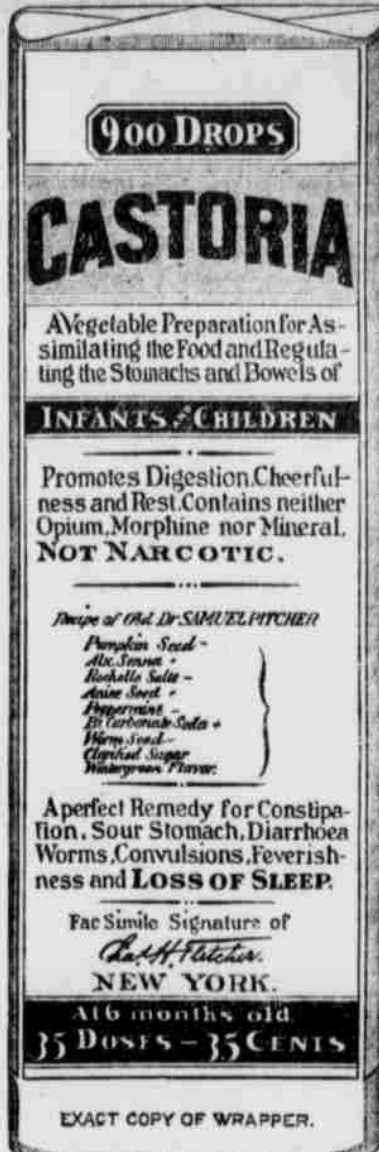

Of the vines ampelopsis viticilia has no superior, and will cling even to smoothly painted brick walls. The Virginia creeper, or woodbine, is an excellent climber to use for covering posts, tree trunks or walls. For trellis or lattice frames the climbing honeysuckle, bitter sweet and wild grape vines are most useful. The trumpet vine is a beautiful climber, but may become a nuisance by rapid spreading. Wistaria and several varieties of clematis, notably paniculata, jackmanni and the star of India are very beautiful, but must be provided with supports to climb on.

Wistaria can be supported by leather strips tacked across the main stems, and clematis climbs beautifully on ordinary chicken wire fencing. Nail strips of wood at top and bottom, and fasten the strips against the wall so that the net wire is an inch or so from it.

Perennials which give unfailing satisfaction may be mentioned as follows: Perennial phlox, peony, golden rod, iris, jonquil, daffodil, narcissus, tulip, crocus, hyacinth, lily of the valley and such wildlings as violets, anemone, spring beauty, blood root, dog tooth violet, Carolina phlox, trillium, etc.

For annual planting such as nasturtium, poppy, larkspur, aster, coxcomb, sweet alyssum, calliopsis, petunia, phlox drumondii, four o'clock, morning glory, sweet pea, pansy, chrysanthemum, evening primrose, and even such coarse textured plants as the sunflower, zinnia and marigold, will be found useful and easy of cultivation.

In a fight between Oscar Toller and Mike Kellman, at Glen Springs, Lewis county, Toller was fatally stabbed.

Carelessly throwing away the lighted stump of a cigar caused the destruction of a large warehouse filled with grain and hay in Paducah.

The new state capitol building in Frankfort will be turned over to the commission within sixty days, is the statement of Architect Frank Adams.

The Indian Oil Refining Company, at Georgetown, has been indicted for polluting the Elkhorn creek by turning in the refuse oil and killing the fish in that noted bass stream.

On Middle creek, near Prestonsburg, a fight occurred Friday between the Fitzpatrick and Coburn factions. Five men were shot, four of whom are dead. A horse was also killed.

Christ Walbaum, a Louisville butcher, took strychnine on the grave of his little son, who had been killed by a street car, because his wife refused to live with him and had applied for a divorce.

George L. Bearden, aged 45 years, a Ballard county, farmer, determined to make a sure thing of it. He cut his throat, shot himself and then hanged himself. Financial trouble is said to be the cause.

On the farm of William Gay, in Clark county, twenty-five sheep in a bluegrass pasture died the other night from poisoning. Samples of the grass were taken to State University at Lexington for examination and analysis.

After two hours deliberation the jury in the case of John Meeks, charged with the murder of Albert Clutterback at Florence, in Boone county, on the night of December 14, last, brought in a verdict of guilty with a recommendation that he be sent to the penitentiary for life.

In a free-for-all fight at Central City, James D. Wood, a member of the city council, was killed, John Wood, his brother, received two serious wounds, and John H. Magan, former policeman, was shot in the leg. It was the result of a friction between the incoming and outgoing city administration.

Notwithstanding the Court of Appeals held that it was only necessary to open on Sunday to warrant a fine, a jury in the Franklin Circuit court decided that R. W. Dehoney and J. J. Sullivan, saloon keepers at Frankfort, were immune because they sold no liquor, although their places were open on Sunday.

At the mouth of Knox creek, in Pike county, last week, Harlan Spratt and Howard Mounts, each aged 13, engaged in an altercation over cards. Spratt shot Mounts in the forehead, killing him instantly. The boy fled to Virginia. He was captured and brought back to Pikeville, where he was lodged in jail.

Acting as his own detective and using as his clew tracks of shoes stolen from him, T. E. Martin, of Franklin county, arrested Clifford Thompson, a negro, a stolen watch, clothing and shoes were found on Thompson. Tying the negro's hands behind him, Martin marched him to Frankfort and turned him over to the jailer.

Four masked men took B. H. Hahs, assistant cashier of the Ballard Bank, at Bandana, near Paducah, to the bank, about ten o'clock Friday night, and made him open the vault. They then took what money ($2,100) was in sight, and made their escape across the Ohio river. About $200 in small change was overlooked by the robbers.

In the trials last week of Geo. Franks, James Harris and Thomas Bailey, suspected felons, Chief of Police Haager, of Louisville, sprung a surprise. He recognized them as men who attempted to hold him up in Chicago five years ago. They were sent to the workhouse for one year. The men went to Louisville from Cincinnati on an excursion and were arrested when they had been in town but a short time.

The citizens of Hazel Green and this vicinity are herewith informed that they can now buy first-class buggies at home. I am prepared to furnish the best made, and at reasonable prices. I don't handle anything but first-class buggies, and those who want cheap claptags will have to go elsewhere.

Remember, if you want a FIRST CLASS BUGGY, one that will give satisfaction in comfort and wear, I can supply you.
Call and see me at my shop in Hazel Green. Respectfully,
JOHN H. ROSE.

You naturally would prefer to treat yourself at home, for any form of female trouble, wouldn't you? Well, it can be done. No reason why you should not be able to relieve or cure your suffering, as thousands of other women have done, by proper use of the Cardui Home Treatment. Begin by taking the well-known female tonic. For sale at all drug stores.

Joe Moorhead, of Archibald, I. T., writes: "My wife had suffered for years from female trouble. On your advice, I gave her the Cardui Home Treatment, and now she hardly suffers at all." Sold by druggists.

Write today for a free copy of valuable 64-page illustrated Book for Women. If you need Medical Advice, describe your symptoms, stating age, and reply will be sent in plain, sealed envelope. Address: Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

OUR INVITATION.

Once each week we pay for this space for the privilege only of inviting you once again to become a depositor in our bank.

"The person who reads about us fifty-two times a year ought to know us at least fifty-two times better than if he had read of us but once. The better he knows us the more likely he is to like us and like our business methods."

"Your account, LARGE OR SMALL, is most urgently solicited, will be highly appreciated and is very respectfully invited."

Misses Maple and Troy

announce to the ladies of town and surrounding vicinity that they now have in stock their new and fresh Spring and Summer Millinery. Having spent several days in one of the most fashionable wholesale millinery emporiums in the metropolis of Louisville, they feel amply able to please the most fastidious tastes even in extremest cases. They also have a select line of LADIES' FURNISHING GOODS, such as Collars, Belts, Gloves, Etc.

In addition to the Millinery Business we have a

DRESS MAKING DEPARTMENT,
to which we give our customers the best advantage, and from our line of literature with illustrations the best styles can be seen and used. We are located over Kash & Sample's Store. Call and see our stock for yourself. Thanking you for your patronage during the past season and hoping to merit its continuance, we are, respectfully, &c.,
